"All the world's a stage . . . ."

The world which concerns the students of Texas Senior High revolves around the "stages" pictured on this page. Every student has played some of his most important roles in one or more of these settings.

In presenting the '55 TIGER REVUE the Annual Staff hopes to give you a program of memories, including the many scenes of the three-act drama in which you have starred innumerable times.

Love to a wonderful friend
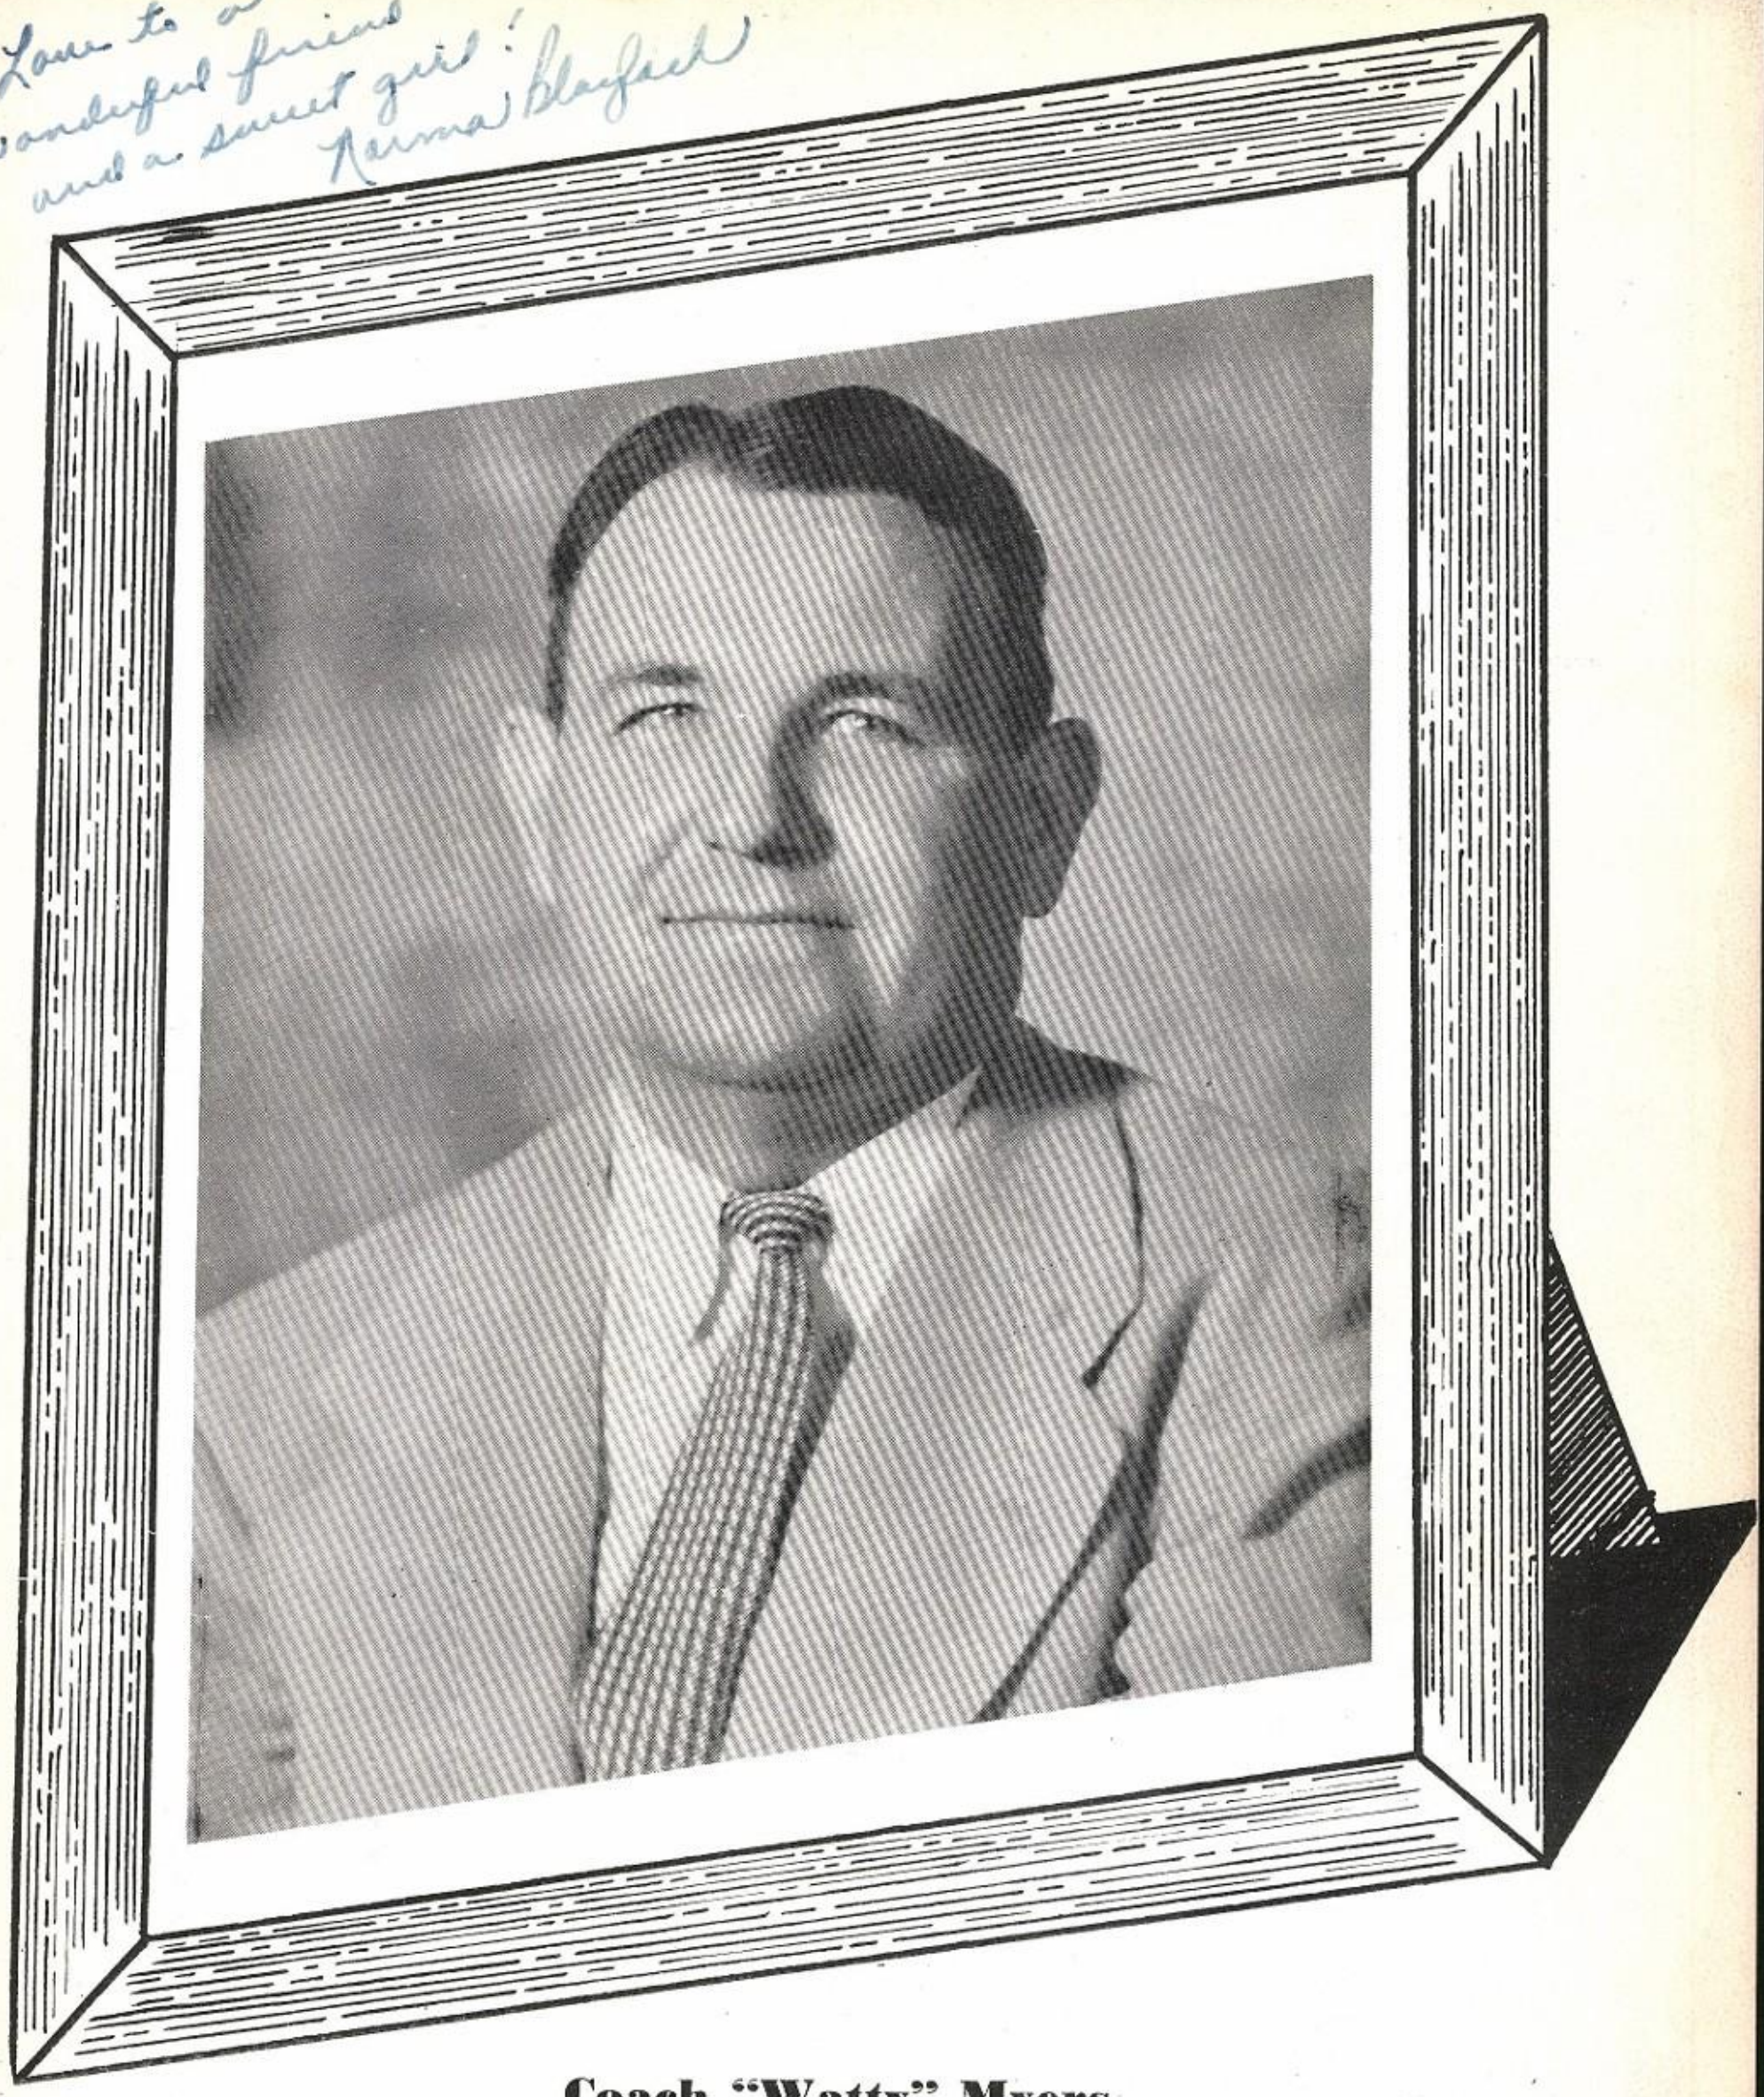
and a sweet girl!
Norma Blanford



Coach "Watty" Myers

Though often working behind the scenes, Mr. Myers has always done his best to bring stardom to our school. As our athletic director he has won many Oscars for us and has made a list of achievements that will be remembered for a long time to come. Because of this stellar performance, we dedicate the 1955 TIGER REVUE to Coach "Watty" Myers, who has done much to bring Texas Senior High into the spotlight.

There are ways and ways of opening annual sales — One is called "Thirty Years from Now."

Kaye Stafford, Art Editor, and Vance Jones, Sports Editor, drawing division sheets.

Lajuana Stipp, Activities Editor, Liane Kelly, Editor-in-Chief, and Mrs. Carroll C. Crane, Sponsor — working on layouts and dummy sheets.

Jane Craver, Class Editor, and Sandra Byrom, Assistant Editor, checking copy sheets for Seniors.

Bryan Brooks, Business Manager, and Mary Sue Line, Assistant Business Manager, tabulating sales and making out bills to advertisers.

Behind the Scenes . . .

To a real sweet girl that I think we would J. Best of luck and happiness. Love always, Mary Jo + Pappas the Prompters never miss their cues. . . .

the Directors' jobs are never done. . .

the Producers' time is not their own . . . .

Kaye Stafford

Dr. H. W. Stilwell

Dr. Stilwell, our Superintendent, is the Managing Director of the Tiger Revue. He has been managing the show at Texas High thirty-four years; therefore he knows all the angles, has all the answers, and has never had a "flop" production. Another big job of his is being president of Texarkana College. Dr. Stilwell is always ready and willing to support Texas High in any way.

Mr. Dale Howard

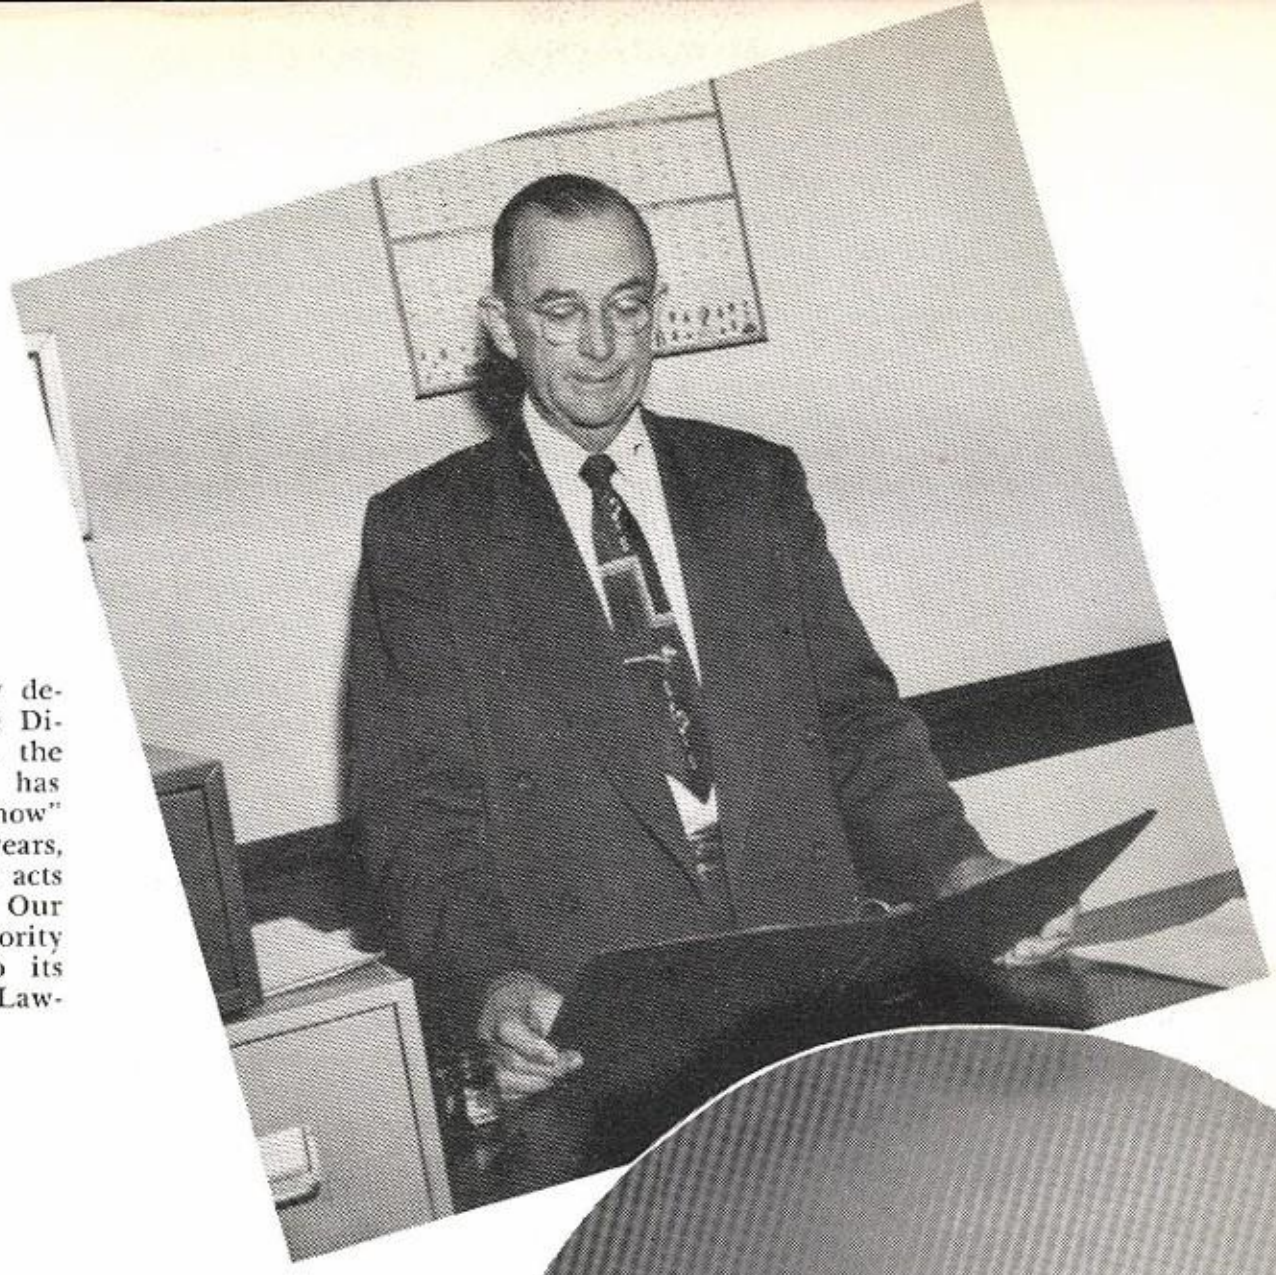
Texas High has an Associate Superintendent for the first time. Mr. Howard, as our Associate Managing Director, has so capably fulfilled his duties that it seems that he is not a "newcomer" but an "oldtimer" in this kind of show business. In a very short time he has helped make our Tiger Revue a success.

Mrs. Elizabeth Tapp

Without Mrs. Tapp in the directors' office, our stage show could not go on. No production can be staged without a Secretary and a Registrar. We are lucky to have one like Mrs. Tapp.

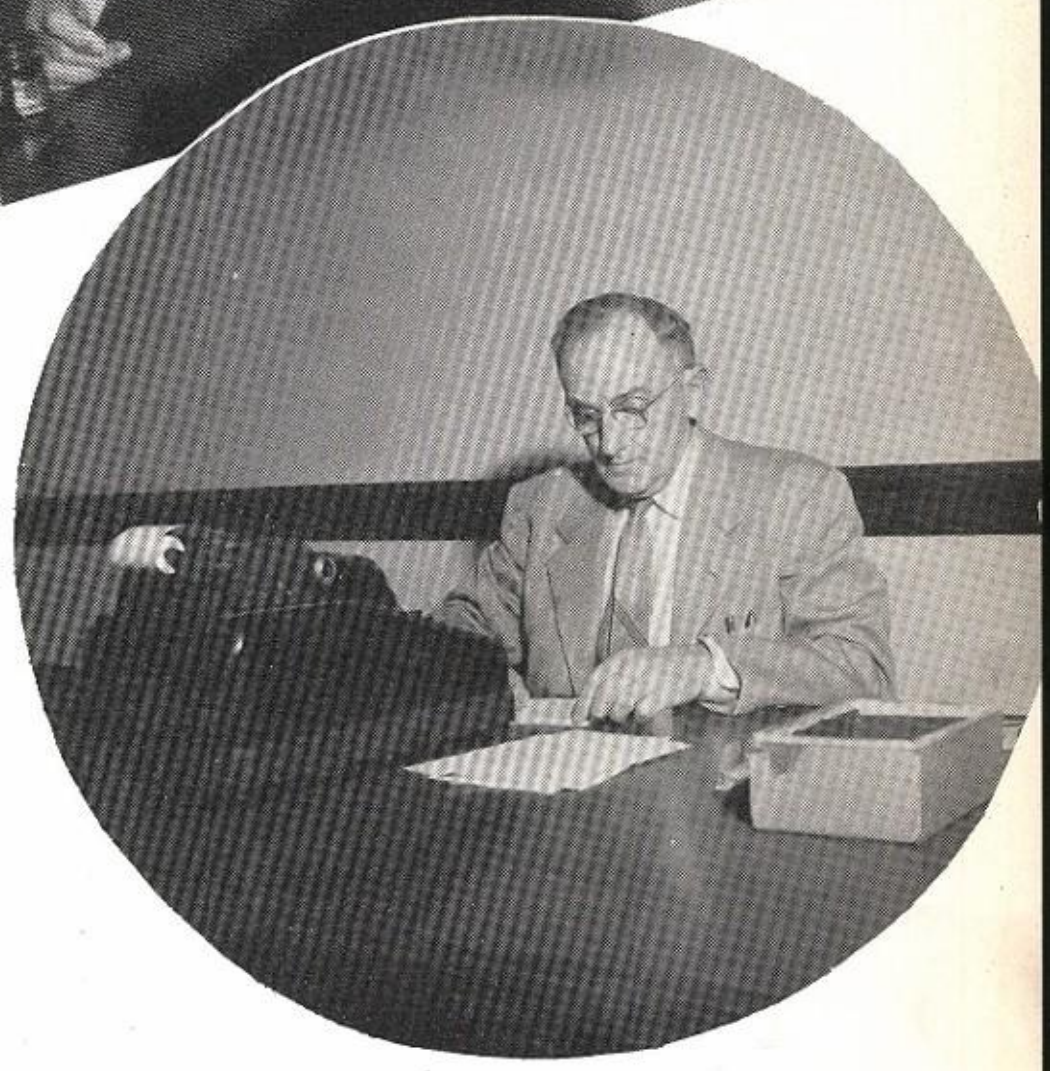
Mrs. Virginia Lynch

Such a production as our directors present needs more than one Secretary. Mrs. Lynch does all the clerical work for our show . . . Needless to say, she "can't be beat."



Mr. B. B. Lawson

The success of any show depends largely on the Stage Director. Mr. B. B. Lawson, the Principal of Texas High, has been directing the "stage show" at Texas High for thirty years, always seeing that everyone acts his part well and properly. Our Tiger Revue owes the majority of its successful "run" to its Stage Director, Mr. B. B. Lawson.



Mr. A. A. Forester

Newly appointed Assistant Stage Director to Mr. Lawson is Mr. A. A. Forester, better known in Room 211, working math problems. However he has quickly become a familiar figure in the Stage Director's office, where his chief role is at the outer table selling cafeteria tickets and tabulating totals.

Mrs. D. V. Cummings

Included on the staff in the Stage Director's office is one who has been carrying out her multitudinous tasks as long as her boss. Mrs. Cummings, better known as Laura, has so many jobs as Secretary to Mr. Lawson that everyone marvels at her ability to accomplish so much in such a short time. Everyone realizes that without Laura our "show" would not be complete.

Mr. Garland Moss

Someone must count the box office returns and keep them growing so that the show won't "close." Mr. Moss, our Business Manager, is the best Box Office Manager we know. He protects the "tiller" and keeps it ready for use in making our production a hit.

Mrs. Willene Dixon

The one who balances the returns in the office of the Box Office Manager is Mrs. Dixon. At all times she can account for the status of the "wherewithal" to keep our show "on the road."

Mrs. E. L. Goodroe

The clerk's work never ends. Besides secretarial work, Mrs. Goodroe files and refiles all reports coming into and going out of the Box Office Manager's office.

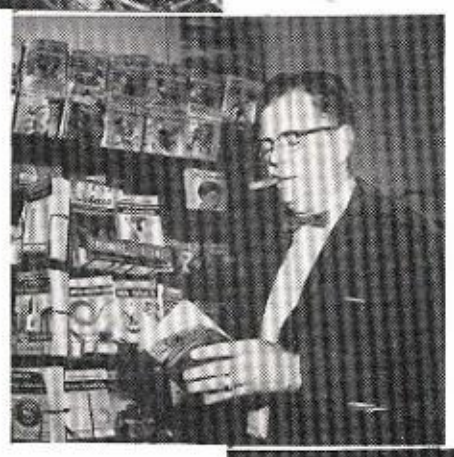
Mrs. Jetta Wade

Mrs. Wade's duties in the office of the Box Office Manager are to type all the notices and to complete all correspondence concerning our productions.

Mr. Aubrey Wood
. . . the secretary of the Board, showing some of the equipment he sells at the Sears' Farm Store.

Mr. John Haltom
. . . the president of the Board, taking time out from his busy life as vice-president and manager of the truck division of Creekmore Motor Company.

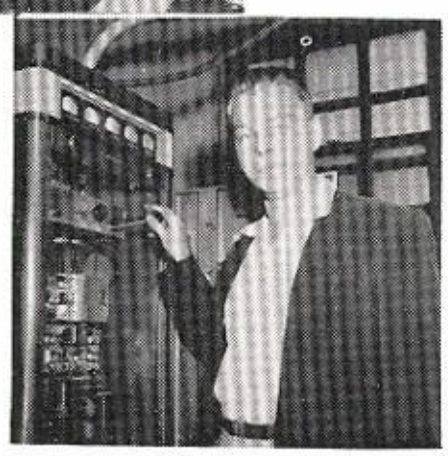
Mr. Hale Parker
. . . the former president of the Board, looking through one of the millions of magazines that can be found at either of his stores, Hale's or The Sportsman.



Mr. Burnham Jones
. . . displaying one of the many styles of shoes sold at Cobb and Sons' Shoe Store.

Mr. Tom Bain
. . . vice-president of the Board, completing a telephone call as chief clerk to the Freight Agent of the Cotton Belt Railroad Lines.

Mr. W. R. Kelly
. . . using the dictaphone to record the many orders he receives for electrical appliances he sells for the Tri-State Distributing Company of Shreveport.



Mr. Bill Williams
. . the newest member of the Board, adjusting electrical equipment at his own shop, Williams Radio and Electric Company.

There could be no show without those who have enough faith in their patrons and are willing to give more than the usual time to plan the production. Texas Senior High is lucky to have the best and most interested Producers any show could have — These seven Producers are the Board of Education, who have spent many long and late hours — without remuneration other than self-satisfaction — planning and organizing this successful show for 1955. The entire cast, from the stars to the prop men, wish to thank our Producers for a smash hit, the '55 Tiger Revue.

Mr. Herschel Henry Vocational Agriculture

The Farmer Boys, like the D. E. students, learn by doing — such things as soil erosion, landscaping, and planting. Mr. Henry also presents entertaining assembly programs with his Future Farmers.

Mrs. Curren E. Allen Distributive Education

"D. E." — that's a training program for those students interested in retail, wholesale, and service occupations. Mrs. Allen calls it "on-the-job" training.

Mrs. William F. Malcolm Art

A former Texas High student married to a former Arkansas High student, Mrs. Malcolm is very busy commuting from Westlawn Junior High to Texas Avenue Junior High to Senior High. She is never too busy to draw posters and paint place cards — and work with the F.T.A.

Mrs. Ellene Johnson Civics

As far as the students know, Mrs. Johnson has no party preference or biased opinions — but she expects class discussions. Always preparing a program — be it Girls' Rec., book reviews, civic clubs, or camping.

Mr. Kenneth Smith Mechanical Drawing

A young, new member of the "Prompters" staff — very good with the T-square and drawing board. Not a bad yell leader! Even better as a baby sitter.

Miss Ruth Hardy American History

"Speaks softly but carries a big stick" to all Seniors. Always good-naturedly telling them that Captain Lawrence's dying words, "Don't give up the ship" can be applied to any situation. Practices what she preaches.

Mrs. A. A. Forester Civics and Texas History

Two "loves" of Mrs. Forester are cats and history, especially about Bowie County. She is happy either befriending homeless cats, helping aliens become citizens, or working with the DAR's .

Mrs. M. R. McClure Physical Education

Much of Mrs. McClure's time during football season was spent helping the cheerleaders. Although this is her first year at Texas High, she is not new in the system, for she was girls' physical education coordinator in the elementary grades last year. She likes to square dance.

Mr. Watson Myers Athletic Director and Head Coach

Many hours Mr. Myers sits at his office desk in the Tiger Gym planning schedules for the Tiger football and basketball games. Many more hours he spends out of his office as he organizes and directs the physical education programs in all the schools in our system.

Mr. Morris Groce Line Coach and Physical Education

A familiar picture on the sidelines at any game or on the campus during P.E. classes is Mr. Groce. Also he is much in evidence in Room 114 during the 5th period study hall.

Mrs. Robert Barron Physical Education

Another new member of the girls' P.E. department. She came to Texas High from Jacksonville, Texas. For a few years she devoted all her time to her two little ones. Now she is busier than ever — at home and at school.

Mr. Eudell Dicus Assistant Coach Physical Education, and Drivers' Training

A former Texas High Tiger of 1941, Mr. Dicus is now on the other side of the desk — in the capacity of teacher. Hope he enjoys the teacher-angle as well as he enjoyed the student-angle.

Mr. William Malcolm "B" Team Coach and Physical Education

The "Ramblers" coach came to us from Texas Avenue Junior High. Coach Malcolm may be small in stature, but he is large in prowess. Keeps a smooth study hall. His "Missus" is our teacher too.

Mr. Gerald McMullen Drivers' Training, Physical Education, and Assistant "B" Coach

Seen often cruising around town during school hours is Coach McMullen — not out for a pleasure ride but out giving a lesson in safe driving. His other duties include P.E. classes and scouting for the "B" team. Mrs. Mc is also a teacher.

Miss Irene Walter — English

A charter member of Texas Senior High, Miss Walter will always be remembered for her cry of "Drill, drill, drill!" She also lends her moral support to the Drama Club.

Mrs. Larry Renshaw — Speech, Radio
Speech, English

Mrs. Renshaw is "our babe in arms." She is not only learning how to teach "school" but is also learning how to keep house — There's always a first time for everything — Good luck, Miss Witmer — we mean Mrs. Renshaw.

Mrs. Grady C. Duck — English

When she is not teaching English, Mrs. Duck is quite busy being president of the local Classroom Teachers Association. She is also never too busy to boost the Baylor Bears.

Mrs. Delphine Lynch — English

"Ex-Queen" of the "B" team, Mrs. Lynch is a lover of The Canterbury Pilgrims. As F.T.A. sponsor, she is a shining example for the members to follow. She teaches sophomore and junior English.

Mrs. Carroll C. Crane — English

If Mrs. Crane had time, she would teach English. Most of her waking hours are spent in the Annual office. If she has any time left from that, she works with the Student Council. Then she teaches.

Mr. Robert Bedwell, Jr. — English

Another newcomer to our faculty. Mr. Bedwell has taught in Arkansas, Mississippi, and Alabama. Now he has come to Texas! He was a former table tennis champion. Another hobby is photography.

Mrs. Margaret McKnight — Librarian

Our new librarian is most helpful and kind to all. She is a good "keeper" of the "manuscripts." She makes the library attractive with her ferns and other flowers.

Mrs. Christine Powell — School Nurse

On the second floor of the Library-Science building is an office which is often visited — the nurse's office, where you will find Mrs. Powell applying band aids or iodine, soothing pains, or checking minor injuries.

Miss Roberta Yant Spanish, Modern History

Our school "senorita." "Una buena professora," she also presents historical events — in English. Naturally she likes Mexican food.

Mrs. R. C. Hamilton Latin

It can never be said that Latin is a dead language in Mrs. Hamilton's class, although some of the students might still be in the maze — or labyrinth.

Mrs. Bill Wagner Typing and Bookkeeping

Preparation for future business managers is Mrs. Wagner's chief interest. However, we must not underestimate her interest in A. Y. as sponsor, and in Boy Scouts, being wife of our Field Executive.

Mr. Jess Pettey Band Director

This year has been rough for Mr. Pettey because for a long time he had no assistant for the lower bands, but he always produces a "sweepstakes" winner for Texas Senior High.

Mrs. A. W. Reed Typing

A very quiet person, who gives all her time to five typing classes. She also is interested in her older daughter's dancing career.

Miss Nona Eagle Choral Music

One of the busiest members of our production is Miss Eagle. Besides her afternoon classes at Senior High, in the morning she directs the musical activities for the elementary schools. Her work has been evidenced many times by successful performances.

Mr. Gayle Kesterson Typing, Commercial Arithmetic, Vocational Guidance

Another alumnus of Texas High. Young in the teaching profession but seasoned in the knowledge of the tricks of his trade. His duties are varied, as you can see.

Mrs. Clyde Bane, Jr. Typing and Shorthand

If the future secretaries she is training are as kind as she, any "boss" would hire them. She is an "old hand" now, having passed her first year of experience with flying colors.

Mr. William Cooper — Algebra and Plane Geometry

Mr. Cooper is another new member of the "Prompters" cast. He came to us from Allen Academy, Bryan, Texas. He is very sincere in helping his students understand the principles and problems of math.

Miss Pearle Hughes — Plane Geometry and Algebra

Here is proof of "good things in small packages." Besides her three math classes in Senior High, Miss Hughes teaches math in Texas Avenue Junior High in the mornings, and sponsors the Y-Teens.

Miss Bernice Marshall — Homemaking and Family Relations

Two of the most beneficial courses in our curriculum are taught by Miss Marshall. She also sponsors our Future Homemakers of America — a worthy and necessary organization. She and Miss Parker continue their instruction through the summer months.

Mr. A. A. Forester — Plane and Solid Geometry, Algebra, Trigonometry

Judging from the list under Mr. Forester's name, there is no math course he does not teach. He's one of our veteran teachers, lately appointed assistant to Mr. Lawson. Mr. Forester never misses a High-Art Day with the Seniors. Lucky man!

Miss Era Parker — Homemaking and Family Relations

Miss Parker, like Miss Marshall, trains our future wives and mothers. She teaches them to cook and sew, to keep a budget, and to care for children — just to mention a few of the duties for the "woman of the house." Her instruction begins in the Junior High schools and continues through Senior High.

Miss Hazell Hardage — Biology and Physics

If you wish inspirational knowledge about nature, insects, and matter and energy, sign up for one of Miss Hardage's science classes in the Library-Science Building. She is very much interested in her field of work and shows that interest in class.

Mrs. Mary Sue Dunkin — Chemistry, General Science

Mrs. Dunkin is always looking for Science Club members who are as interested as she in the latest developments of chemical science. Her Science Club is famous for its original concoctions — and its travels.

SUMMARY

The pre-season prediction for the 1954 Tigers was, "We'll be lucky to win half our games." The amazing Tigers, however, won eight games and lost only two, finishing second in the district.

A determined bunch of Tigers traveled to Temple for the season opener. Sparked by a sensational 52-yard pass play from James Monroe to James Markham, the Tigers roared from behind in the last four minutes to bring home a 13-7 victory.

The following week, the "under-dogs" invaded Little Rock and brought home a rain-soaked 2-0 victory. Aided by the aggressive Tiger line, Kenneth Greene let loose a smashing tackle in the first quarter to give the Myersmen a safety which proved to be the only score.

Athletic Director and Head Coach

Mr. Morris Groce
Line Coach

The Tigers made their first home stand against the potent South Oak Cliff Bears from Dallas. A pair of costly fumbles and a passing attack that wouldn't click left the Tigers on the short end of a 21-14 score.

The Tigers took their revenge out on Denison the next week by smothering the Yellow-Jackets 53-0. Billy Erie scored three touchdowns; George McKinney, two.

After an open date, the Tiger den was invaded by the powerful, purple-togged Lufkin Panthers. The Tigers fell apart in the second quarter, but recovered too late to keep the Panthers from a 41-20 victory.

The next week the Tigers bounced back from their costly defeat, scoring a second-quarter touchdown and holding the tally to a 7-0 victory over the previously unbeaten Nacogdoches Dragons. James Monroe, Billy Erie, James Wedding, Danny Petty, and Johnny Lineberger were outstanding.

Then the Myersmen, supported by a special trainload of fans, invaded Marshall. James Wedding paced the squad to a 26-6 victory.

Scoring four touchdowns in six minutes, the Tigers easily rolled over their rival Tigers from Mt. Pleasant, 40-0, the following week. Wayne Murray and Danny Petty were standouts.

Famed Catfish Smith's Longview Lobos howled into town to meet the Bengals, who, by the most outstanding playing of the season, stashed away a 34-0 victory in their last home game.

The vengeful Tigers journeyed to Kilgore for the Turkey Day classic. To the surprise of the fans, Tackle Lee Yokum scored two touchdowns on passes from James Monroe, and the Tigers finished their schedule with a 46-6 victory over the Bulldogs.
